

Enquiries: Victoria Weyulu
Email: victoria.veyulu@namra.org.na
Tel: +264811250362

05 February 2026

Mr. Edward Shivute
Acting Chief Executive Officer
Walvis Bay Corridor Group
Private Bag 25220
WINDHOEK, NAMIBIA

Dear Mr. Shivute,

SUBJECT: INVITATION TO HYBRID ENGAGEMENT ON THE CUSTOMS BONDS MANAGEMENT POLICY, 16 FEBRUARY 2026

1. The above matter refers.
2. Following the resolution of the Walvis Bay Corridor Group (WBCG) Annual Planning Session held from 28–30 January 2025, the Namibia Revenue Agency (NamRA) is pleased to invite industry stakeholders to participate in a hybrid engagement on the Customs Bonds Management Policy.
3. The Customs Bonds Management Policy seeks to provide a structured and risk-based framework for the management of Customs guarantees, with the objectives of strengthening revenue protection, improving compliance and supporting Namibia's trade facilitation agenda. This final round of consultation is intended to validate the practical implications of the Policy and incorporate stakeholder input prior to submission for internal approval of the Policy.
4. We kindly request WBCG's support in facilitating the participation of relevant corridor users and industry representatives in this important consultation process.
5. The hybrid engagement on the Customs Bonds Management Policy is scheduled as follows:

Date: Monday 16 February 2026
Time: 10h00 – 12h30
Physical Venue: 1st Floor, NamRA Headquarters, Townsquare Building, Windhoek
Virtual Platform: Microsoft Teams (link to be shared in due course)
6. We have attached the agenda and the Customs Bonds Management Policy for your review in preparation for the engagement.
7. We look forward to WBCG's continued collaboration and support in ensuring meaningful industry participation in this consultation.

Please accept, Mr Shivute, the assurances of my highest consideration.

Yours sincerely,

pp.

WILLBROAD PONISO
HEAD: CUSTOMS AND EXCISE